Every shareholder has the right to appoint some other person, who need not be a shareholder, as their proxy to exercise their rights to attend and, on a poll, vote on their behalf at the meeting.

If you wish to appoint a person other than the Chair of the meeting please insert in block capitals the full names of the person, delete “the Chair of the meeting or” and initial the amendment.

Please indicate how you wish your proxy to vote by placing a tick in the appropriate box. Unless otherwise indicated the proxy will exercise his discretion both as to how to vote and as to whether he abstains from voting.

In the case of joint holders, the signature of any one holder will be sufficient. In the case of a corporation, the proxy should be executed under its common seal, or signed on its behalf by an attorney or officer, so authorised.

To be valid this proxy must be lodged by post or email (CoSec@jec.co.uk) at the Registered Office of the company not later than 48 hours before the time of the meeting excluding any part of a day that is not a working day in Jersey).

The Lodging of a form of proxy does not prevent a member from attending and voting if he so wishes.
